EXHIBIT OPENS: Mexicanidad-Modotti and Weston. Photographs by two artists whose work was shaped by the fervent culture and politics of 1920s Mexico. Tina Modotti and Edward Weston traveled from California to Mexico City in the late summer of 1923 and found a country that was reverberating with the modernizing effects of recent revolution -- political and social reform coupled with cultural initiatives and new industries. Modotti's iconic, eloquent images of native life reflect her motivation to use the camera as a tool for social change; Weston integrated realism and abstraction, fact and symbol to refine his modernist view of photography. Through March 3 during regular gallery hours: Tues.-Fri., 10 a.m.-5 p.m., Sat., 11 a.m.-4 p.m., Center for the Visual Arts, 1734 Wazee St. 303-294-5207
